Contract

It is agreed that there will be a one hundred-pound fee for booking The Healmaster Show. This fee is to cover all expenses for Gary and his partner Jane for the periods stated in this contract. It is to allow for transport and the running of that transport what ever method Gary should decide on the night, to make sure he can get safely to the address in question to ensure the show takes place.

This fee can be paid through the web-site www.healmaster.com or paid by cash on the night. However a £30 booking fee will be requested to be paid up front of the booking, and the balance of £70.00 to be paid on the night in question. Prices are based on the show taking place within 20 miles of Norwich... for shows further afield please contact Gary for pricing.

The Healmaster Show lasts for approximately two and a half-hours, so this should be accounted for when booking the show. Also the show will be in two parts allowing for a small fifteen-minute break in the middle of the show.

The Music that Gary will be healing to on the night is a very special piece of healing music composed by Gary's partner Jane, and has been spiritually encouraged in the composition played on a vibration to help all kinds of healing. This music will be available should anybody wish to purchase a copy of the shows music on the evening in question. Also there will be a Meditation CD available, again put together by Gary and Jane and can be viewed on the web site should anybody want a copy. It is understood that no deposits will be refunded should a cancellation take place on behalf of the booker.
